

Links * Ann Noble Architects cannot be held responsible for the quality, service or contents of external sites

Here you will find links to sites that you may find useful.

Architects for Health

<http://www.architectsforhealth.com/>

Architects for Health is an independent group formed over ten years ago by architects to bring together individuals and organisations who share an interest in excellence in healthcare facility design.

The Nuffield Trust

<http://www.nuffieldtrust.org.uk/>

The Nuffield Trust promotes independent analysis and informed debate on UK health care policy with the aim of contributing to enabling the people of the United Kingdom to enjoy better health and receive quality and effective healthcare.

The NHS Estates Knowledge & Information Portal (KIP)

http://195.92.246.148/nhsestates/knowledge/knowledge_content/home/home.asp

The NHS Estates Knowledge & Information Portal (KIP) has been developed to provide a UK-wide source of knowledge and expertise in the provision of the health-care environment. KIP is a searchable source of information on the many aspects of the healthcare environment.

Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment (CABE) Library - Health Projects

<http://www.cabe.org.uk/library/search.asp?supercategory=health>

The Health section of CABE's online Library showcases two project in which Ann Noble Architects had considerable input as an integral part of the design team: Fairfield Grove Health Centre and Greenwich Millennium Health Centre.

The RIBA Health Forum

http://www.architecture.com/go/Architecture/Debate/Forums_2067.html

The RIBA Health Forum provides architects with the opportunity of working with clients to improve the design and use of health buildings. In addition to leading architectural practices, the forum consists of highly influential clients from the Department of Health, NHS Trusts, patient organisations and experienced health planners.

Art & Architecture

<http://www.artandarchitecture.co.uk/index.htm>

Art & Architecture is a practitioner led-alliance promoting interaction between artist and architects. Established in 1982, Art & Architecture has been an active proponent for many of the key initiatives of the last two decades, and continues to encourage dialogue between architects, engineers, planners, developers and artists.